Modern Masonic association with these medieval defenders of Christian sacred places is linked by the installation ceremony in which the candidate takes the role of a pilgrim who, symbolically embarking on a crusade, is elevated to cavalry. the earliest reference to the modern activity of the templars of Masonic knights on the ground can be found in the act of the chapter of friendship (royal arch) in portsmouth, dated 1778, where it was worked as an annex diploma. in 1791, a large conclave was formed, comprising seven ambers "with thomas dunckerley as grain-master. in 1873, the "grend conclave" was now known as priory, and the fields were now known as preceptories. the ceremony is very realistic and the spectacular regalia, based on the oado by medieval knights. Potential candidates must be a master mason, a royal and Christian arc mason. on the day of the great priory 2021, the master grain, most eminent and supreme knight, paul raymond clement, produced a video address for the knight brother. A knight is a person granted an honorary title of knighthood by a head of state (including the Pope) or representative for service to the monarch, the church or the country, especially in a military capacity. Knighthood finds origins in the Greek hippeis and hoplite (hípeic) and Roman eques and centurion of classical antiquity. In the Early Middle Ages in Europe, knighthood was ... Jacques de Molay (French ; c. 1240-1250 - 11 or 18 March 1314), also spelled "Molai", was the 23rd and last grand master of the Knights Templar, leading the order from 20 April 1292 until it was dissolved by order of Pope Clement V in 1312. Though little is known of his actual life and deeds except for his last years as Grand Master, he is one of the best known Templars.
